TYPICAL WEEKEND ROTATION

TOP STORYLINES

- GT is playing in its 36th NCAA Regional and its 5th in the last 6 years.
- Tech is 71-60 (.542) all-time in regional play, looking to advance to the Super Regional round for the 1st time since 2006.
- This is the 25th NCAA Tournament run in the Danny Hall era (since 1994) – the Jackets are 64-55 (.538) in postseason play under Coach Hall appearing in five Super Regionals (2000, '02, '04, '05, '06) and three College World Series (1994, 2002 and 2006)
- The Yellow Jackets won their 10th ACC regular season championship with an ACC leading 19 wins in conference play.
- This was the 10th regular season title in program history: 1987, 93, 97, 2000, 04, 05, 11 and now 2025 (Divisional titles in 19 and 21).
- The Jackets are tied with North Carolina for the 2nd most regular season titles since Danny Hall took over in 1994, with eight.
- The Jackets have enjoyed a strong month of May, posting a 10-3 record and winning all three series (vs. Western Carolina (3-0) vs. No. 20 Louisville (2-1) & at No. 20 Duke (2-1))
- The Jackets finish the regular season with a 13-6 record on the road (.684 winning %) – the best road record since 2004 (14-3) and the 10th best all-time (since 1895). Should GT win its next road game (vs. Ole Miss this weekend) it would tie 1987 for the best road record with at least 20 games played in program history.
- GT won 10 of its first 11 road games for the 1st time in program history.
- Tech owns one of the most potent offenses in the Power 4, leading in doubles (141) and among the Top 5 in avg (3rd–.315), hits (3rd–599), slug (4th–.538) & scoring (4th–8.4).
- Georgia Tech is averaging 2.47 doubles per game this season, tied for the most in the Power 4 – the program record for doubles/game is 2.51, set in the 1987 season.
- The Jacket arms have only allowed 8.59 hits-per-nine this season – the fewest since 1994 – Danny Hall's first season on The Flats.
- Tech is Top 20 across Division I in the following statistical categories: SAC flies (1st – 39), Doubles (3rd – 141) slugging % (10th – .538) and batting average (13th – .315).
- GT leads the ACC in doubles (141), doubles per game (2.47), average (.315), hits (599), SAC flies (39) slugging % (.538) and runs (477).
- The Jackets set a postseason program record and tied the all-time ACC Tournament record with seven home runs in their quarterfinal win over California. Six different Jackets contributed to the outburst, led by Burress' second multi-homer game of the season.

- Tech was the only team in the ACC tournament with four freshmen in its lineup: ACC Freshman of the Year Alex Hernandez (RF), ACC All-Freshman team member Caleb Daniel (LF), Drew Rogers (DH) and Will Baker (2B). All four contributed RBI over the two games.
- This season, Tech freshman are hitting at a .305 average with a .403 OBP and .558 slug %. They have delivered 145 runs, 184 hits, 35 doubles, 5 triples, 36 HR, 149 RBI, 87 walks 11 sac flies, 5 sac hits and 11 stolen bases with striking out 149 times. (combined output from Hernandez, Daniel, Baker, Rogers, Nathanael Coupet and Connor Shouse as well as pinch-runners Joshua Evans and Cooper McMullen)
- Tech is the only ACC team and one of only seven teams in the NCAA Tournament field (one of only two from the P4) to have three players with at least 58 RBI this season: Alex Hernandez (61), Drew Burress (61) and Kyle Lodise (58).
- Hernandez leads all Power 4 freshman with 61 RBI this season – 5th among Division I first years. He leads all freshmen in the NCAA Tournament field with Florida's Brendan Lawson (57) in 2nd.
- Burress leads all of Power 4 with 23 doubles this year, tying the Georgia Tech record in the BBOR era (since 2011).
- His 23 doubles are 2nd among players in the Tournament field, behind only Murray State's Jonathan Hogart (25).
- Tech is the only ACC team to have three players with 18 or more doubles: Burress (23), Lodise (20) and Carson Kerce (18). GT is one of five teams in the field to do so, along with Friday's opponent, WKU (3)
- Burress leads the ACC with 42 extra base hits. He is followed by Kyle Lodise, in second with 38, tied with his cousin, Alex (Florida State).
- He is the only underclassman in Division I with 40+ career home runs (43) ranking 25th among players in the tournament.
- Of the Top 50 players listed in the NCAA active HR leaders database, Burress ranks 1st among them in HR/game at 0.374
- Senior Mason Patel is 3rd nationally with 11 wins (one behind UNC's Jake Knapp for the most in the Power 4). He is the first double-digit winner at GT since the 2011 season (14 years ago).
- Vahn Lackey leads all Power 4 catchers with 73 hits – 2nd most in the field behind only Utah Valley's Mason Strong (85)
- The Jackets are the only team in the nation with national award semifinalists up the middle: Lackey (Buster Posey Award SF), Patel (Pitcher of the Year SF) Lodise (Brooks Wallace and Golden Spikes SF) and Burress (Golden Spikes and Dick Howser Trophy SF)

• The Cardiac Jackets wasted no time returning for 2025, winning opening day by one run, 3-2, after scoring the go-ahead run in the bottom of the eighth after an infield grounder from Nathan Waugh gave just enough time for Drew Burress to come sliding home from third, despite a 5-man infield from ODU.

• In the 2nd game, Tech fell behind, 3-0 before recording an out, only for the bullpen to come in and pitch 9.0 innings of scoreless ball, striking out a season high 16 and only allowing three base hits. The bullpen kept the game, 3-0, until the bottom of the ninth, when Tech exploded for seven runs, the most scored in a ninth inning in a decade of GT baseball.

• That 7-run 9th inning began with a 5-pitch walk by Nathan Waugh before Vahn Lackey delivered his 2nd hit of the game to put runners at 1st and 2nd. Alex Hernandez drew a walk on 4 pitches to load the bases for Tyler Neises who connected on an 0-1 pitch, driving it into left for a single and cutting the deficit to one run, 3-2. Will Baker reached on an error when his sacrifice bunt was mishandled by the ODU pitcher, loading the bases for Kyle Lodise who took his second walk of the day to score Hernandez and tie the game. The very next batter was Drew Burress and he made no mistake, smashing a 1-0 pitch over the wall in right for the walk-off opposite field walk-off grand slam.

• The Jackets began ACC play with a pair of ninth-inning rallies to take two of three at Virginia Tech. On Friday, GT had been trailing, 2-3, since the fifth inning but Carson Kerce and Kyle Lodise led off the inning with walks before being brought home off singles from Kent Schmidt and Alex Hernandez, before Patel slammed the door in the bottom of the inning to earn the 4-3 win.

• In the series finale, Tech entered the 9th tied, 6-6 and had not scored since the 3rd. John Giesler led off the inning with a four-pitch walk, followed by a 5-pitch walk from Parker Brosius. It was freshman Caleb Daniel who came through in the clutch, launching a ground-rule double to put GT ahead, 7-6. Carson Kerce would drive home Brosius on a SAC fly to add the insurance run before the combination of Brett Barfield and Cooper McMullen shut down the VT bats for the victory and the 1st career save for McMullen.

• In the final game of April, the Jackets were on a season-long seven game losing skid, headed into the bottom of the ninth, down 4-6, facing the first 8-game losing streak since 1986. Drew Burress saved the day, launching a two-run game-tying home run after Kyle Lodise drew a walk to get on base. Once the game entered the 10th inning, Mason Patel put a zero on the board, allowing for Kent Schmidt, playing in his first series since missing 20 games with an injury, to launch a walk-off solo home run with two outs, to give Tech a 7-6 victory.

• Tech claimed its 5th one-run victory at Mercer, thanks to Connor Chicoli's best start of his young career. The freshman allowed only two runs over 7.2 innings, the longest of any starter this season, allowing Tech to enter the 9th inning with a 4-2 lead. Fellow freshman Alex Hernandez slammed the door, thanks to a pair of excellent defensive plays at SS from Kyle Lodise to secure GT's 6th win in a row.

• The sixth one-run win also required an incredible pitching performance, this time, by senior Jaylen Paden. He threw 6.0 no-hit innings in the second game of a doubleheader against No. 19 Louisville, his longest outing of the year and first time he's carried a no-hit bid through six innings in his collegiate career. Mason Patel pitched the final 3.0 innings, allowing the only hit of the day on a solo home run as the Jackets won a 2-1 game thanks to a pair of RBI from Kyle Lodise.

• Tech waited till the final weekend to claim their 7th on-run win, using a 5-run 7th inning, headlined by a bases clearing, 3 RBI double from Kent Schmidt to erase a 2-4 deficit to Duke on Thursday, May 15, and eventually win the game, 7-6. Mason Patel recorded three straight Ks to help slam the door.

• He earned his 5th-career ACC Coach of the Year honor this year, tying Brian O'Connor (UVA) for the 2nd most in ACC history - Mike Martin (FSU) holds the record, with 7.

Spinning From The Start

- The Georgia Tech pitching staff got off to a historically strong start in 2025 - holding its opponents to fewer than five runs in each of its first six games for the first time since 2002.
- The pitching staff allowed nine runs over the course of the series, a 10-run improvement after averaging 19 runs allowed over the previous three opening series sweeps (14 RA in 2024, 24 RA in 2023 and 19 RA in 2022).
- The Jacket pitchers struck out 40 in the opening weekend against Old Dominion — tied with 2022 for the most strikeouts through the first three games this century.
- In March, the Jackets allowed only three hits in back-to-back games against Georgia State (March 11) and Pitt (March 14) - the first time Tech has allowed 3 or fewer hits in back-to-back games since a doubleheader against Duke in 2012 (March 31st — 3 hits in game one / 2 hits in game two) — those games featured a complete game shutout from Buck Farmer and 4.1 innings from Luke Bard — both future major leaguers.

No PATEL-ing How Long This Will Last

- Senior RHP Mason Patel earned 2nd Team All-ACC, officially the 2nd best relief arm in the conference.
- He became the first Yellow Jacket pitcher this century to win each of his first six starts.
- He was awarded ACC Co-Pitcher of the week on Feb. 24 after dominating both Marshall and Georgia Southern to the tune of 8.1 innings with a 0.00 ERA, 11 strikeouts and a 2-0 record while only allowing four base runners.
- Patel becomes the first GT pitcher to earn pitcher of the week since Andy Archer (March 29, 2021).
- Patel's award-winning week got started on Wednesday, when he came out of the bullpen to start the third inning in Tech's road opener at Georgia Southern. Patel was perfect through 5.1 innings, retiring the first 16 batters he faced in order to quiet the Georgia Southern bats and allow for Tech to take the game, 5-3. He struck out a career-best nine batters in that appearance, which also goes down as his longest outing in White & Gold — Patel's longest since pitching 6.0 innings in a start against Brown for Georgia State back in 2023, all in only 50 pitches.
- He followed that with another gem of an outing on Sunday against Marshall, entering the game with runners on second and third and nobody out in the fifth inning, working around a hit-by-pitch to keep the Thundering Herd off the board with yet another scoreless inning. He would pitch two more scoreless to earn the victory, leaving after the 7th inning with the Jackets in front, 10-3.

- In his third appearance of the season, Patel entered in the sixth inning - retiring the first batter he saw to get Tech into the 7th inning and earning the win and improving to 3-0 — becoming the first Yellow Jacket pitcher to be 3-0 after only nine games since Xzavion Curry in 2018.
- Patel was first out of the bullpen vs. KSU, working a pair of flyouts to get Tech out of the second inning before striking out two around a couple of hits in the third and adding another K in the fourth around a two-out walk for 2.2 scoreless innings
- He would get credit for the win, improving to 4-0 on the season and becoming the first Yellow Jacket to earn the win in each of his first four appearances since Mark Pope in 2011.
- Patel came out of the bullpen in the 5th inning of the series opener at VT and continued his unconscious season, pitching 4.2 innings without allowing a hit.
- Patel allowed only three base runners (one walk, one HBP, one ROE) and retiring 7 straight during the middle innings.
- He would get credit for the win, becoming the first Yellow Jacket to earn a win in each of his first five appearances since Kyle Bakker in 2002.
- Patel slammed the door yet again in Tech's last game (vs. GSU) pitching the final 3.0 innings and allowing only one base runner to secure his sixth victory in as many appearances, still without allowing a run.
- He came in to pitch the final three innings of the Saturday win against Pitt, earning his first save of the season. He gave up his first run of the year in the seventh inning, bringing his scoreless streak to an end at 22.2 innings to begin the year — the best by any Tech pitcher this century.
- Patel came out on Saturday at Virginia Tech, pitching a career-best 6.2 innings - the longest outing of any Yellow Jacket at that point — while striking out seven and throwing only 73 pitches.
- He entered the game at Notre Dame (March 22) in the third inning, coming in with the bases loaded, one out and a two-run lead (5-3). He proceeded to get a three-pitch strikeout before inducing an inning ending groundout to escape the jam and set the tone for what would be yet another dominant outing.
- He gave up one earned run on a solo homer, just his second earned run allowed over 29.2 innings of work.
- He is the only GT pitcher in the 21st century to earn a part of the decision in a each of his first eight appearances (seven wins, one save).
- Patel took the reins for the final four innings on Friday vs. Clemson, allowing a pair of home runs for a total of three earned runs allowed while striking out four. He got saddled with the tough-luck loss, dropping his season record to 7-1 with a save over nine appearances.
- Patel showed why he was a consensus midseason 1st Team All-American, pitching the final 4.1 innings on Friday at Stanford with five strikeouts and only one run allowed, off a SAC fly following a leadoff triple in which the Tech fielder missed a diving catch to allow for extra bases.
- Patel earned the win, his NCAA leading eighth win of the season, improving to 8-1 with a save.
- He would collect a pair of saves over two appearances in GT's sweep over Cal (April 11 & 13).
- In his first appearance, on Friday, he pitched the final 3.1 innings to collect his second save of the season while recording his 40th K of the season, his first 40 K season in college.

- He followed that with a pitching clinic on Sunday, needing only 13 pitches to collect the final six outs of the game and his second save of the weekend.
- Against UVA, he bounced back after a three-run outing on Friday, pitching 3.0 scoreless innings in the 8th, 9th and 10th against Virginia, earning his Power 4 leading 9th win of the season.
- It was his fifth outing of at least three innings in which he hasn't allowed more than one base hit this season as he proves why he was one of only nine relievers in the nation listed on both the National Pitcher of the Year and Stopper of the Year midseason watch lists.
- Three weeks ago, after graduating from Georgia Tech on Friday morning, Patel pitched the final three innings on Saturday afternoon, allowing only one run and striking out four to collect his team-leading fourth save of the season against Western Carolina.
- He emerged for the 9th inning against Georgia Southern, collecting the final three outs for his 5th save of the year.
- The Knoxville, Tenn native earned the win in game two on Sunday, allowing one run and one hit over three innings and earning his 10th win of the season, becoming the first GT pitcher with 10 wins since 2011.
- He led Tech to a crucial series opening win at Duke, pitching the final 3.2 innings and striking out three in a row at one point to earn his 11th win of the year.
- Patel is the only pitcher in Division I with at least 8 wins and at least 5 saves and has set career highs this season in innings pitched (65.2), strikeouts (62), wins (11) and saves (5).

LAST WEEK...

Quarterfinal Highlights - The Arms - GT 10 - Cal 3

- Tech pitching struck out 13 batters today – the most since 2018 (13 vs. Pitt in the ACC Tournament).
- Sophomore Tate McKee delivered his best postseason appearance in White & Gold, pitching 6.1 innings, tying his career high with 10 strikeouts and setting a new career high with 104 pitches, despite being sick for days before and throwing up during the start.
- He held Cal off the board through 4.1 innings, only allowing a run off an RBI groundout in the fifth inning before giving up a leadoff single in the seventh that would come around to score after he exited the game.
- This was his 15th start of the season, his third quality start of the season and the fourth of his career.
- McKee earned the win to improve his record to 7-3 this season and 10-5 over his GT career. He joins Brady Jones (7-2) and Mason Patel (11-1) on the seven-win mountain top, becoming the first trio of Tech pitchers with seven or more wins since Connor Thomas (9-2), Jonathan Hughes (9-2) and Amos Willingham (8-2) in 2019.
- Senior Mason Patel pitched 1.2 innings, keeping Tech in front of a 4-2 and 5-2 game before giving way to Brett Barfield after the Jackets' five-run eighth inning.

- This was just his third appearance of the season in which he didn't contribute to the final result: 11-1, 5 saves.
- He recorded a pair of strikeouts while only allowing one hit, bringing his season total to 59 strikeouts in 61.2 innings of work.
- Brett Barfield made his postseason debut in White & Gold, pitching the final inning and recording one strikeout while allowing an earned run.

Semifinal Highlights - The Arms - GT 4 - Clemson 9

- Junior Brady Jones made his 15th start of the year, pitching 3.0 innings and allowing five runs after an overturned call kept the third inning alive, leading to a grand slam for the Tigers.
- This was the first time Jones had not thrown at least 5.0 innings since March 22 at Notre Dame, over two months ago.
- Senior Mason Patel pitched 4.0 innings in relief, facing the minimum through 3.0 before being tagged for two runs (only one earned) in the seventh inning.
- Riley Stanford pitched the eighth inning, allowing a run while also recording a strikeout with a 97-mph fastball, one of the hardest-thrown pitches of the season by a Tech pitcher.
- Jaylen Paden saw his scoreless streak come to an end at 15.2 innings after he allowed a solo home run in the ninth inning. It was the second-longest scoreless streak of the season behind Patel's 22.2 from earlier in the season.

- Prior to joining the Yellow Jackets, Taylor was the minor league pitching coordinator for the Atlanta Braves after three seasons as the pitching coach at Georgia State.
- During his time with the Braves, Taylor oversaw the development of prospects such as AJ Smith-Shawver, Spencer Schwellenbach, JR Ritchie, Owen Murphy and Dylan Dodd. He helped lead the Braves minor league pitching ranked to a No.1 ranking in K-BB%, and No. 2 in xFIP (out of 30 MLB Organizations) in 2022, along with capturing a division title. His minor league pitching staff delivered the third-best K-BB% among MLB organizations in 2023, prior to joining the Jackets coaching staff.

Jim Poole Number - John Giesler

Georgia Tech baseball continues the legacy of former Yellow Jacket standout and Major League Baseball relief pitcher Jim Poole, who passed away from ALS in October of 2023, by designating a student-athlete each year to wear his No. 21 jersey. The student-athlete selected must exemplify Poole's characteristics both on and off the field.

This year, senior infielder John Giesler becomes the third Yellow Jacket to earn the honor, continuing the tradition begun by Jack Rubenstein in 2023 and Ben King last season.

"I am excited that John Giesler will wear number 21 this year," Head Coach Danny Hall said. "Jim Poole was part of an era in Georgia Tech Baseball that established us as a national power. Jim's prowess on the mound and in the classroom set the bar high for future Yellow Jacket players and teams. John exemplifies those same character traits of excellence on the field and in the classroom. As a two-time Captain he is the ultimate "Tech Man" to honor Jim's legacy."

Giesler, a sixth-year senior from Marietta, Ga. (Walton HS) will wear No. 21, having shown a longstanding commitment to Poole's ideals – self-determination, a strong academic work ethic, and high moral fiber on and off the field. Giesler is a five-time member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll, a two-time academic all-district honoree and earned Academic All-America (3rd Team) in 2023. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in real estate development.

On the diamond, Giesler is entering his second season as team captain. He is a career .308 hitter for the Yellow Jackets and set career highs in doubles (17), home runs (10) and RBI (43) last season while delivering a .990 fielding percentage in 41 games in the corner infield. He will be a key piece of the Jackets' offense again in 2025 as Tech strives for its 36th NCAA Regional berth and fifth in Giesler's career in White and Gold.

"Simply put, this is the greatest honor I have ever been given," Giesler said. "From knowing Jim and knowing who he was as a person, I don't feel deserving but I am incredibly honored. I will do everything I can this year to wear this number with respect and honor him and his family the best I can."

ABOUT JIM POOLE

Poole arrived on The Flats in 1985 and had an immediate impact, as Georgia Tech baseball would win the first of four-straight ACC Tournament Championships. During his four years, he pitched in 120 games and struck out 263 batters in 188 innings. He still ranks first in the Tech record book with 22 career saves, including 10 as a junior and nine as a senior. He was named all-ACC his last two seasons. Poole would be enshrined into the Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame just nine years later in 1997.

A stellar worker in the classroom, Poole elected not to turn professional after being selected in the 34th round of the 1987 MLB Draft by the LA Dodgers, and returned to Georgia Tech for his senior year, recording a 2.03 ERA and 113 strikeouts in only 71 innings. Once again, the LA Dodgers would call his name in the 1988 MLB Draft, this time taking him in the ninth round. He would return to graduate from the Institute with a degree in electrical engineering in 1990.

Poole played 11 years in the major leagues, predominantly with the Baltimore Orioles, Cleveland Indians, and San Francisco Giants. In 431 games played, he finished with 22 victories and a 4.31 ERA, as well as 256 strikeouts and four saves. He helped pitch Cleveland to two American League Championship Series (1995, 1998), making it to the 1995 World Series where he would face the Atlanta Braves.

Following his retirement at the end of the 2000 season, Poole returned to Georgia Tech to join the Alexander-Tharpe Fund as a fundraiser and supporter of the baseball program. He then began serving as the pitching coach at Johns Creek High School in 2010, teaching many young men about pitching mechanics, while also conveying his personal pitching philosophy.

He later joined the business world as a Personal Wealth Advisor for the Baseball Division of BIP Wealth.

After being diagnosed with ALS in 2021, Poole worked tirelessly to raise awareness for the disease. In addition to serving on MLB ALS boards, he also worked with Georgia Tech, who together hosted an ALS Awareness Day during the 2022 baseball season, with Tech wearing Jim Poole shirts and both teams wearing honorary wristbands. Professional players also wore the shirt. Tech later designated the number 21 each year to be worn by a student-athlete who exemplify Poole's ideals – self-determination, a strong academic work ethic, and high moral fiber on and off the field.

Every 90 minutes, someone is diagnosed with ALS, or Lou Gehrig's disease, with an estimated 30,000 people living with ALS in the United States at any given time. Primarily affecting people between the ages of 40 and 70, ALS is a progressive neurodegenerative disease that affects nerve cells in the brain and the spinal cord. There is no known cure.

LET'S BRAG ABOUT BURRESS

"Burress is as big a star as you'll find in college baseball, the reigning D1Baseball Freshman of the Year and a 2024 first-team All-American after hitting .381/.512/.821 with 25 homers. He's a no-brainer first-team preseason All-American as a sophomore, and our preseason pick for ACC Player of the Year."

– D1Baseball

- In 2024, Drew Burress established himself as one of the best hitters in college baseball and one of the most exciting prospects to watch leading up to the 2026 draft. If he can continue his historic run through the ranks of NCAA Baseball, every MLB front office will be begging for Burress to become the next face of the franchise.

- Burress hit 25 home runs last season, one shy of the Georgia Tech program record (set by Kevin Parada in 2022) and two shy of the NCAA freshman home run record set by Tommy White (NC State) in 2022 as well.

"If he continues to crush the ball at anything mirroring his current rate, he could follow in [Dylan] Crews' footsteps and reach his high ceiling when he's eligible for the 2026 Draft."

– Jesus Cano, MLB.com

- Burress can claim to have an unofficial piece of the GT home run record since he hit a home run against Georgia that would ultimately not be recorded officially after the game was ended due to rain.

- Last year, Burress became the 1st Yellow Jacket to ever slug over .800 with at least 200 at bats. His .821 slugging percentage led all Division I freshman and 6th overall among those with 200+ ABs.

- Not only did Burress turn heads with his bat but he also set the Georgia Tech record for the most assists by an outfielder in a single season, gunning down 10 runners from his spot in center field.

"He has thunderous bat speed and does a nice job creating leverage in his swing, and shows off plus power, especially to the pull side."

– Peter Flaherty, Baseball America

- This season, Burress has placed an emphasis on showing off his base running. After stealing 8 bags on 10 attempts last year, Burress feels that his speed isn't getting enough attention & looks to amend that in 2025.

- He became the fastest Yellow Jacket in program history to reach 30 career home runs – doing so in just 73 games, a full 20 games faster than the previous record holder, Kevin Parada and faster than legendary Tech sluggers such as Jason Varitek, Mark Teixeira and Nomar Garciaparra

"From Day 1, you never thought he was a freshman. He's a very mature kid. He doesn't mix any words about it. He wants to be a first-round pick. He wants to be the best player in the country. That's what drives him. That's his passion. He is one of those guys that makes everybody around him better. Every day."

– Danny Hall, ABCA Hall of Famer

Tech set a program record this season, going 37 games without recording a loss from a starting pitcher. That streak was snapped on Friday, April 18 when McKee threw a season-high 7.0 innings in a tough-luck loss.

Against Western Carolina, all three starters recorded wins, marking the first time that's happened over a three-game series since 2020 vs. Ohio State.
